Interpretation.

2. In this Act and in any regulations made under this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “Minister” means the Minister of Finance and Customs.

(b) “Board” means the Board of Arbitrators appointed under the provisions of section seven hereof.

(c) “Non-resident Company” means an incorporated company having its head office or principal place of business outside Newfoundland, but having assets in or carrying on business in Newfoundland, either directly or through or in the name of any other person.

(d) “Person” means any individual or person and any partnership, syndicate, trust, association or other body and any body corporate, and the heirs, executors, administrators, curators, and assigns or other legal representatives of such person, and includes banks and banking corporations.

(f) “Tax-payer” means any person paying, liable to pay, or in the opinion of the Minister to be liable to pay any tax imposed by this Act

(g) “Court” means the Supreme Court of Newfoundland.

Tax on net profits.

3. There shall be paid to His Majesty by the person owning any business to which this Act applies a tax of twenty per centum of the net profits in excess of the sum of three thousand dollars earned by such business during each of the accounting periods hereinafter mentioned.

Provided that every bank or banking corporation shall pay ^{Proviso as to banks.} the said tax, or at the option of the said bank or banking corporation shall pay, in lieu of the said tax, a tax of one-half of one per cent., to be computed on all moneys on deposit on December thirty-first of each of the said accounting periods.

4. For the purposes of this Act the calendar year com- ^{Accounting periods.} mencing on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and the calendar year commencing on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, shall each be deemed to be an accounting period, whether or not the business subject to taxation has or has not been continuously carried on during the whole of such period.

5. The businesses to which this Act applies are all trades ^{Businesses subject to tax.} and businesses (including the business of transportation) of any description carried on or partly carried on, in Newfoundland, whether continuously or not, except the business of Life Insurance.

6. (a) The taxable profits of a non-resident Company ^{Net profits—how computed.} shall be the net profits arising from its Newfoundland business, including both domestic and export business.

(b) No deductions from the gross profits for depreciation or for any expenditure of a capital nature for renewals, or for the development of a business shall be allowed except in such amounts as appear to the Minister to be reasonable and to be properly attributable to the accounting period, and the Minister, when determining the profits derived from mining, shall make an allowance for the exhaustion of the mines.

(c) Any deduction made from the gross profits for the remuneration of directors, managers, and persons concerned in the management of the business shall not, unless the Minister, owing to any special circumstances, otherwise directs, exceed the sums deducted for those purposes in the Calendar year ending December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and no deductions shall be allowed in respect of any transaction or operation of any nature where it appears, or to the extent to which it appears, that the transaction or operation has improperly reduced the amount to be taken as the amount of the profits of the business for the purposes of this Act.

(d) In the case of any contract extending beyond one accounting period from the date of its commencement to the completion thereof and only partially performed in any accounting period, there shall (unless the Minister, owing to any special circumstances, otherwise directs), be attributed to each of the accounting periods in which such contract was partially performed, such proportion of the entire profits or estimated profits in respect of the complete performance of the contract as shall be properly attributable to such accounting periods respectively, having regard to the extent to which the contract was performed in such periods.

(e) Where an incorporated company conducts its business, whether under agreement or otherwise, in such manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit its shareholders or any of them or any persons directly or indirectly interested in such company by selling its products or the goods and commodities in which it deals at less than the fair price which might be obtained therefor, the Minister may, for the purposes of this Act, determine the amount which shall be deemed to be the profits of such company for any accounting period, and in determining such amount, the Minister shall have regard to the fair price which, but for any agreement, arrangement or understanding, might be or could have been obtained for such products, goods and commodities. Net profits—how computed

(f) The dividends received from the stock of any incorporated company which has paid a tax upon its profits, under the provisions of this Act, shall not be included when the profits of any business are being determined.

(g) The amount of any tax paid by a person under the provisions of the Finance Act (No. 2), 1915, passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or under any legislation for raising revenue for the present war in force in India or any Colony or dependency of His Majesty, or in France, Russia, Italy, Belgium, Japan, Serbia, Montenegro, Portugal, the United States of America and any other country that may hereafter become an ally of His Majesty in the present war, or the Colonies or dependencies of any of these countries, in respect of any business liable to taxation hereunder, shall be deducted from the amount of the tax that would otherwise be payable by such person under this Act.

7. (a) If a taxpayer disputes the assessment made by the Minister under this Act such dispute shall be determined by a Board of Arbitrators. The Minister shall appoint one Arbitrator, the taxpayer another, and the two Arbitrators so appointed shall appoint a third or umpire; and in the event of the taxpayer failing to appoint an Arbitrator after seven clear days' notice so to do, then the Minister may apply to the Court or a Judge thereof, who shall, after due notice to the said taxpayer, appoint such Arbitrator, and the Arbitrators so appointed by the Minister and the Court shall thereupon appoint a third Arbitrator, and if the said two Arbitrators shall neglect or refuse to appoint such third Arbitrator, after seven clear days' notice from the Government so to do, the Court or a Judge thereof shall on the application of the Minister appoint such third

Arbitrator, and the award of such Board of Arbitrators or a majority of the Board, shall be final and binding between the parties ;

(b) Every member of the Board shall take an oath of office in Form A. of the Schedule to this Act before performing any duty under this Act. All affidavits made in pursuance of this sub-section shall be filed with the Minister.

Annual tax returns.

8. (a) Every person liable to taxation under this Act shall, on or before the first day of February in each year, without any notice or demand, deliver in duplicate to the Minister a return in Form B. of the Schedule to this Act, or in such other form as the Minister may prescribe, covering each accounting period for which he is liable to taxation. In such return the tax-payer shall state an address in Newfoundland to which all notices and other documents to be mailed or served under this Act may be mailed or sent.

(b) The return, in the case of a partnership, syndicate, association or other body, shall be made and signed by a member or officer having a personal knowledge of the affairs of such partnership, syndicate, association or other body, or, in the case of a corporation, by the president, secretary, treasurer or chief agent having a personal knowledge of the affairs of such corporation, or, in any case, by such other person or persons employed in the business liable, or in the opinion of the Minister, liable to taxation as the Minister may require.

(c) The Minister may at any time enlarge the time for making any return.

Minister may demand information.

9. (a) If the Minister, in order to enable him to make an assessment, desires further information, or if he suspects that any person who has not made a return is liable to taxation hereunder, he may, by registered letter, require additional information, or a return containing such information as he deems necessary to be furnished him within thirty days.

- (b) The Minister may require the production or the production on oath by the tax-payer or his agent, or officer of any letters, accounts, invoices, statements and other documents, account and other books relating to the business of any tax-payer liable, or in the opinion of the Minister liable, to taxation under this Act.

10. (a) For every default in complying with the provisions of the next two preceding sections the tax-payer, and ^{Penalty for default in making returns.} also the person or persons required to make a return, shall each be liable on summary conviction to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each day during which the default continues.

- (b) Any person making a false statement in any return ^{Penalty for false statements.} or in any information required by the Minister, shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten thousand dollars or six months' imprisonment, or to both fine and imprisonment.

11. (a) The Minister shall, on or before the first day of ^{Assessment of tax by Minister.} March in each year, or on or before such other date as he may in any case or cases prescribe, determine the several amounts payable for the tax and shall thereupon send, by registered mail, a notice of assessment, in such form as the Minister may prescribe, to each taxpayer notifying him of the amount payable by him for the tax. The tax shall be paid each year within thirty days after the date of mailing of such notice. In default of payment, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be paid on such tax until the said tax and interest are paid.

- (b) The Minister shall not be bound by any return or information supplied by or on behalf of a tax-payer, and notwithstanding such return or information, or if no return has been made, the Minister may determine the amount to be paid by any person for the tax.

(c) Any person liable to pay the tax shall continue to be so liable for the period of three years from the time at which such tax would have been payable, and in case any person so liable shall fail to make a return as required by this Act, or shall make an incorrect or false return, and does not pay the tax in whole or in part, the Minister may, at any time within the said three years, assess such person for the tax, or such portion thereof as he may be liable to pay.

(d) The tax may be assessed on any person for the time being owning or carrying on the business or acting as agent for that person in carrying on the business, or where a business has ceased, on the person who owned or carried on the business or acted as agent in carrying on the business immediately before the time at which the business ceased, and where there has been a change of ownership of the business during an accounting period, the Minister may if he thinks fit, apportion the tax between the several owners.

Officers disclosing
information :
Penalty.

12. No person employed in the service of His Majesty shall communicate, or allow to be communicated to any person not legally entitled thereto, any information obtained under the provisions of this Act, or allow any such person to inspect or have access to any written statement furnished under the provisions of this Act. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months, or to both.

Time for appeal
from assessment.

13. Any person objecting to the amount at which he is assessed, or as having been wrongfully assessed, may personally, or by his agent, within twenty days after the date of mailing of the notice of assessment, as provided in section eleven of this Act, give notice in writing to the Minister in Form C. of the Schedule to this Act that he considers himself aggrieved for either of the causes aforesaid, otherwise such person's right to appeal shall cease, and the assessment made shall stand and be valid and binding upon all parties concerned, notwithstanding any defect, error or omission that may have been made therein, or in any proceeding required by this Act or any regulation hereunder. Provided, however, that the Minister, either before or after the expiry of the said twenty days, may give a tax-payer further time in which to appeal.

14. (a) The Board, after hearing any evidence adduced and upon such other enquiry as it considers advisable, shall determine the matter and confirm or amend the assessment accordingly. The Board may in any case that may come before it increase the assessment.

Powers of Board of Arbitrators.

The Board shall send a copy of its decision by registered mail to the tax-payer or his agent, or officer. In any case where the appeal is unsuccessful, the Board may direct that the person who appealed shall pay the costs of such appeal, and may fix the amount of such costs.

(b) The scale of costs in force in the Court shall apply to such appeals.

15. If the taxpayer fails to appear, either in person or by agent, the Board may proceed ex parte or may defer the hearing.

Default in appearance on appeal.

16. No assessment shall be set aside by the Board upon the ground that there has been any error or omission in connection with any proceedings required to be taken under this Act or any regulation hereunder, but such Board, in any case that may come before it, may determine the true and proper amount of the tax to be paid hereunder.

Irregularities in procedure not to avoid assessment.

17. The tax, and all interest and costs assessed or imposed under the provisions of this Act, shall be recoverable as a debt due to His Majesty from the person on whom it is assessed or imposed.

Recovery of tax.

Tax, etc., to be a first charge on property.

18. Taxes, interest, costs and penalties imposed under this Act, shall be a first lien and charge upon the property, whether real or personal, movable or immovable, of the person liable to pay the same.

Regulations.

19. The Minister may make any regulations deemed necessary for carrying this Act into effect.

Duration of tax.

20. The provisions of section three of this Act shall not continue in force after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Enacting clause, Council, and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows :—

1. (1) If a money bill having been passed by the House of Assembly and sent up to the Legislative Council at least one month before the end of the session, is not passed by the Legislative Council without amendment within one month after it is so sent up to that House, the Bill shall, unless the House of Assembly direct to the contrary, be presented to the Governor, and become an Act of the Legislature on the assent of the Governor being signified, notwithstanding that the Legislative Council have not consented to the Bill.

Consent of Legislative Council not essential in case of Money Bills.

(2) A money bill means a public bill which in the opinion of the Speaker of the House of Assembly contains only provisions dealing with all or any of the following subjects, namely, the imposition, repeal, remission, alteration or regulation of taxation; the imposition for the payment of debt or other financial purposes of charges on the Consolidated Revenue Fund, or on money provided by the Legislature of the Colony, or the variation or repeal of any such charges, supply; the appropriation, receipt, custody, issue or audit of accounts of public money; the raising or guarantee of any loan or the repayment thereof; or subordinate matters incidental to those subjects or any of them. In this Sub-section the expressions "taxation," "public money," and "loan," respectively, do not include any taxation, money or loan raised by local authorities or bodies for local purposes

"Money Bills" defined.

(3) There shall be endorsed on every money bill when it is sent up to the Legislative Council and when it is presented to the Governor for assent, the Certificate of the Speaker of the House of Assembly, signed by him that it is a money bill.

Certificate of Speaker.

Other public bills may become law without consent of Legislative Council in certain cases.

2. (1) If any public bill (other than a money bill) is passed by the House of Assembly in three successive sessions (whether of the same General Assembly or not), and having been sent up to the Legislative Council at least one month before the end of the session, is rejected by the Legislative Council in each of these sessions, that bill shall, on its rejection for the third time by the Legislative Council, unless the House of Assembly direct to the contrary, be presented to the Governor, and become an Act of the Legislature of the Colony on the assent of the Governor being signified thereto, notwithstanding that the Legislative Council have not consented to the bill. Provided that this provision shall not take effect unless two years have elapsed between the date of the second reading in the first of those sessions of the bill in the House of Assembly and the date on which it passes the House of Assembly in the third of those sessions.

Certificate of Speaker.

(2) When a bill is presented to the Governor for assent in pursuance of the provisions of this section, there shall be endorsed on the bill the certificate of the Speaker of the House of Assembly, signed by him that the provisions of this section have been duly complied with.

Identity of bills, how determined.

(3) A bill shall be deemed to be the same bill as a former bill sent up to the Legislative Council in the preceding session if, when it is sent up to the Legislative Council, it is identical with the former bill or contains only such alterations as are certified by the Speaker of the House of Assembly to be necessary owing to the time which has elapsed since the date of the former bill, or to represent any amendments which have been made by the Legislative Council in the former bill in the preceding session, and any amendments which are certified by the Speaker to have been made by the Legislative Council in the third session and agreed to by the House of Assembly, shall be inserted in the bill as presented for the assent of the Governor in pursuance of this section :

Provided that the House of Assembly may, if they think fit, on the passage of such bill through the House in the second or third session, suggest any further amendments without inserting the amendments in the bill, and any such suggested amendments shall be considered by the Legislative Council, and, if agreed to by that House, shall be treated as amendments made by the Legislative Council and agreed to by the House of Assembly ; but the exercise of this power by the House of Assembly shall not affect the operation of this section in the event of the bill being rejected by the Legislative Council.

3. Any certificate of the Speaker of the House of Assembly given under this Act shall be conclusive for all purposes, and shall not be questioned in any Court of law. Speaker's certificate conclusive.

4. (1) In every bill presented to the Governor under the preceding provisions of this Act, the words of enactment shall be as follows, that is to say :— Form of enacting clause.
